

TGU@10
2009-2019

Thursday 26 September 2019, St Anne's College

Thurs 26 Sep 2019

9:30 Registration, tea and coffee

10:00 Welcome

10:10 TGU: highlights attracting the limelight

St Anne's College

Paul Klenerman

Carolina Arancibia

Making big things happen

10:30 Coming out of HIDing

10:55 Holding out for a HIRO

11:20 Single cell analysis of tissue inflammation in IBD to inform personalised medicine

11:45 Plastic fantastic: Inflammation and stem cells

Jack Satsangi/Simon Travis

Paul Klenerman

Hal Drakesmith/John Ryan

Alison Simmons

Simon Leedham

12:10 The Keshav Award

Best research by a Fellow or Postdoc (including 15min presentation)

12:30 Lunch

13:30 Lightning talks (5mins each: 3 slides and 3 minutes, 2min Q&A)

Research Fellows

Multimomics and IBD

14:00 Impact of genomics on polygenic IBD

14:25 Unweaving the rainbow: monogenic masquerades of IBD

14:50 Epigenomic modifiers and IBD

15:15 Signals from fibroblasts: perceive whatever holds the world together in its inmost folds

Simon Leedham/Carolina Arancibia

Luke Jostins-Dean

Holm Uhlig

Jack Satsangi

Matthias Friedrich

Fay Probert

15:40 Metabolomic markers for disease severity and prognosis

16:00 Tea

Translational science

16:30 Developing vaccines against HCV

16:55 May the G4orce be with you

17:20 Crossing boundaries: the gut, liver and beyond

Jane Collier/Oliver Brain

Ellie Barnes

Emma Culver

Alessandra Geremia

17:45 The future is now

Fiona Powrie

18:15 Closing remarks

Sir Peter Ratcliffe

18:30 Reception and dinner

St Anne's College

OXFORD

Translational Gastroenterology

Unit

